

The Electronic Health Record fax solution that returns ROI in weeks

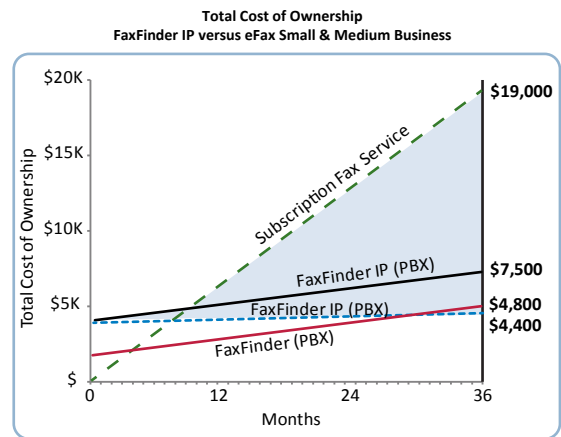

The FaxFinder® fax server allows you to send, receive and store faxes as PDF or TIFF files on your tablet, PC, laptop or mobile device. Inbound faxes can be automatically directed to an email account, network printer or network folder. The web services API allows integration with third-party applications and works seamlessly with third-party applications and works seamlessly with Health Record Solutions.

What the FaxFinder can do to complete your EMR Solution

- Automate patient charts, orders and labs - No printing or rescanning necessary
- Quickly send and receive consult notes, referral letters
- Compatible with Windows, iPhone and Android platforms
- Manage faxes from any location

Benefits & Features

- Substantial savings compared to fax subscription services
  - No Monthly Fees
  - Unlimited Usage
- Existing fax numbers can be kept
- Supports HIPAA compliance
- Seamless integration with a wide range of PBX systems
- Delete junk faxes without wasting paper and toner
- Optimizes infrastructure to enhance productivity and improve workflow to achieve ROI in weeks
- One fax server for multiple office locations

Comparison based on 2-channel FaxFinder IP vs. eFax (10 users sending and receiving 10 pages a day).

Contact [Company Name], to add the FaxFinder to your Electronic Medical Record solution.

Phone Number
Web Address

www.multitech.com